PilotMall.com and Air Journey to Fly Relief Mission to Bahamas

St. Petersburg, FL – August 29, 2011 - PilotMall.com today announced its intent to team up with Air Journey on a relief mission to the Islands of the Bahamas in an effort to bring supplies and much needed aid to the region. The two companies, each with strong reputations for quality service in the aviation industry, are currently collecting supplies in preparation for their mission.

This trip leaving Wednesday, August 31st will deliver much needed supplies including tarps, easy/no-prep foods, water, flashlights, medical kits, batteries, and other urgent supplies in response to devastation left behind by last week's hurricane. Getting organized quickly and securing the most important supplies is pivotal to this joint missions success, especially considering the geographic locations hit hardest by Hurricane Irene.

"We can't afford to waste time waiting for the citizens of these devastated territories to ask for help," said PilotMall.com President Neil Glazer. "Instead we'll be flying out the most needed supplies in an effort to prevent more suffering and assist with cleanup. It'll be great working with Air Journey because their knowledge of the Bahamas and the Caribbean is unparalleled."

"This is a great opportunity for us to help those in need," said Air Journeys President Thierry Pouille. "By combining our efforts with PilotMall.com Aviation Superstore, we'll be able to provide an even more significant and timely shipment of food and supplies due to our diverse network and aviation industry experience."
